Case Studies

Case Study 1 – Due Diligence Report

Objective

MARC was approached by ABC Company to create a due diligence report for the acquisition of two targets:

- Target 1, which had research and pathology labs conducting clinical trials of vaccines for global pharmaceutical companies.
- Target 2, a diagnostic center based in Mumbai serving both B2C and B2B clientele.

ABC Company aimed to gain a comprehensive understanding of the financial health, operational efficiency, and potential risks associated with these targets.

The objective was to ensure informed decision-making and strategic alignment of the proposed acquisition.

The report included a comprehensive analyses of the cap structure, analyses of the individual and consolidated financial statements, quality of earnings analyses, key deal issues, revenue and cost analyses, key legal and compliance issues among others.

MARC's Process

Collect comprehensive data on the target entity, including financial records, legal documents, and operational details.

Examine the collected information to verify its accuracy, assess risks, and identify any potential issues or red flags.

Compile the findings into a detailed report, providing insights and recommendations for decision-makers.

Case Study 2 – Detailed Project Report and Fundraising

Objective

MARC was approached by a group of reputed doctors to facilitate their vision of establishing a hospital by raising necessary funds through a combination of crowdfunding from high-net-worth individuals (HNIs) with a minimum ticket size and securing a bank loan, supported by a comprehensive techno-economic viability (TEV) study. The TEV study comprised of:

- Technical Feasibility: Land use, infrastructure, skilled manpower, capacity.
- Market Potential: Market scenarios, demand-supply analysis, competition.
- Financial Viability: Cash flows, financial projections, profitability, sensitivity analysis.
- Management Capabilities: Management assessment, SWOT analysis.

MARC's Process

Identify and engage potential HNI's for crowdfunding, ensuring compliance with the minimum investment requirement.

Conduct a detailed TEV study, incorporating thorough research and analytics, to support the bank loan application.

Submit the completed TEV report to the bank, along with necessary documentation, to secure the required financing.

Case Study 3 – Organizational Structuring for JV

Objective

MARC was approached by XYZ Hospital to prepare the company and structure the transaction for a joint venture with Shalby Hospitals, renowned for performing the world's largest number of knee replacement surgeries.

It included the development of internal controls and processes, establishment of robust Management Information Systems (MIS), and restructuring of the organization to optimize for mergers and acquisitions (M&A).

This internal structuring aimed to ensure seamless integration, operational efficiency, and paved the way for a successful joint venture (JV).

MARC's Process

Develop and implement internal controls and processes to ensure compliance and efficiency across the organization.

Create detailed SOP's for all departments to standardize operations and enhance service delivery.

Design and deploy MIS to streamline data management, reporting, and decision-making within the hospital.

Case Study 4 – Feasibility Study

Objective

MARC was approached by Hospital X to evaluate the feasibility of setting up neonatal Intensive Care Units (ICUs), a dialysis center, and cardiac cath labs in Goa by conducting a comprehensive feasibility study.

This study aimed to assess the technical aspects such as site analysis, infrastructure requirements, and availability of skilled personnel.

It also included a financial analysis projecting costs, revenue, profitability, and return on investment.

Additionally, the study evaluated operational feasibility by analyzing market demand, potential patient volume, and the competitive landscape to ensure the new facilities meet the highest standards of healthcare delivery and align with the hospital's strategic goals.

MARC's Process

Conduct a thorough technical assessment for neonatal ICUs, dialysis centers, and cardiac cath labs. Fortis Cathlab was constituted after thorough due diligence and partner search

Perform a detailed financial analysis, projecting costs, revenue, profitability, and return on investment for each proposed facility.

Analyze the findings to determine overall feasibility and compile them into a report with recommendations for decision-makers.
